VOL. IV. NO. 37.

CHICAGO, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

TWO SMART CALIFORNIANS.

Californians will feel an unusual degree of interest in the decision of the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps this year, for the reason that two candidates of undeniable merit, bred in California and entered and owned by Californians, will probably be among the starters for both events. They are the 4-year-old colt The Roman and the 4-year-old filly Fleur de Lis. They are good horses and of the class that winners of the great handicaps come from.

The Roman, a bay, by Brutus—Beauty, is the property of W. Boots & Son and was bred by them at their Elmwood Stock Farm. Slow to mature he was not especially conspicuous as a 2-year-old, winning but two races in seventeen starts, a half mile in 49½ and five furlongs in 1:01½; but he was placed in nine of his starts. In his 3-year-old form The Roman started in eighteen races of which he won seven and was second in seven. This year he has started five times and been four times a winner. The Roman is a compact powerful colt of a high order of speed, a good weight carrier and a bull dog in gameness. His recent victory at a mile and a quarter in 2:07½ with 119 pounds up shows conclusively that, fit and well, he should be a formidable contender with the light impost that has been allotted him in the big Eastern handicaps.

Fleur de Lis is a young mare of high class. As a two-year-old she was about the best in California in a year that was prolific of good ones, such as Rowena B, Candelaria, The Roman, Kingstreet, Howard S, Lumina, True Blue, Dura and Geyser. She is a big, splendid looking brown by the Australian sire Maxim—Fleur-ette, and Fleur-ette is a full sister to the immortal mare Firenze. In her 2-year-old form she started in thirteen races, of which she won five, was second in four and unplaced in four. She was sick in the spring of 1897 and unable to run until late, starting in six races, of which she won three, was second once and twice unplaced. This year she has started in five races, of which she has won three, been second once and unplaced once. It will be noticed as something of an oddity that she has never been placed third. She is very fast on a dry track and equally at home in heavy going, while The Roman is not a mud horse. She is beyond question the best mare in California, and if she keeps well, will surely make her mark in the east. The condensed racing history of the two horses is as following:

Horse.	Age.	1st.	2nd.	3rd.	Unp.	Total
The Roman	2	2	3	4	8	17
	3	7	7	2	2	18
	4	4	0	1	0	5
Fleur de Lis	2	5	4	0	4	13
	3	3	1	0	2	6
	4	3	1	0	1	5

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. Fred Gebhard is charged with the idea of entering and starting Olindo in the Grand National of 1899, and the consideration of enough quality about the Onoko—Sophronia gelding to win the race. Mr. R. C. Hooper, of Boston, who races as "Mr. Chamblet," and Mr. J. W. Colt are also suspected of British intentions. Mr. Hooper owns Kilkenny, Waltzer and Bonaparte. Mr. Colt's best are Decapod and Wood Pigeon.

Milt Young is in favor of the passage of the Kentucky racing bill and says: "I am in favor of it. All conservative horsemen are for it. The interests of the breeder and the owner and the driver are identical. The measure is good for all. We have had too much racing. If we hope to live, there must be a limit. If not, the public, from whom we get our support, will be worn out."

Pierre Lorillard has sold Simon Magus, by St. Simon—Wheel of Fortune, to Jack McDonald. The beautifully bred English horse is to do stud duty at the Oakwood Farm near Lexington, Ky. The Duke of Portland bred Simon Magus, and he is but ten years old.

W. M. Murry has sent Jessie C, dam of Circe and Michael III, and three other broodmares to St. Carlo. Circe was phenomenally speedy but a non-stayer, though she did once put in a mile in 1:40½, while Michael III has given evidence of both gameness and staying power.

Fleur de Lis will leave for New York early in March if all goes well. She will probably start in several stake engagements this month. Stemler is negotiating for three or four good two-year-olds and may arrange with Boots to take The Roman along.

W. Richardson, who brought out Forbush last year, has a 2-year-old that he thinks will be in the front ranks this year. She is by Free Knight out of a full sister to the speedy Galen and has been named Mizoura. She will probably make her debut at Memphis.

G. B. Havill warns other owners not to employ or harbor a stable boy named Willie Jones, who is under contract to him and has run away. The boy is supposed to be at work in some of the stables at Roby.

Councilman Moran of New Orleans has introduced an ordinance which provides for the punishment of touts of all classes, whether on a race track or in the city. The penalty is $25 or thirty days.

W. H., Chicago, Ill. Bergen was on Salvatore's back when he ran the mile at Monmouth Park August 29, 1890, against time. The course was straight. See the American Sporting Manual.

H. H. Hunn, who formerly trained for Walter Hobart, has taken Mohawk Prince and Arraloe to Venezuela, where a race meeting is now in progress.

The San Francisco Chronicle considers that Ruffala is one of the few of the get of Brutus that can run on a muddy track.

J. B., Peoria, Ill.—Yes. Isonomy, 5 years old, 138 pounds, beat a field of twenty horses for the Manchester Cup in 1880.

For striking a man who had accused him of not trying to win with Hazard W. Martin was suspended for a week.

Ed Corrigan's brother Bernard is taking in the 'Frisco races and otherwise enjoying the "glorious climate."

R. L. Baker has sold Calculator and Margaret E, to C. H. Edwards of Virginia. Both are by Harry O'Fallon.

Salvation is training well and will soon be ready to face the starter.

NEW ORLEANS FORM.

Time, 24½, 50, 1:02½, 1:15½.

Winner—Ch. g, 6, by Mariner—Marinette. Start good. Won easily. The next eight were driving. Spray was far the best and can do better. So tab him. He was lucky and well ridden. McFarlane is good, too. He was used too much and collapsed in the final drive. The race should put him on edge. Bell is but a sprinter. She was the victim of pacing with McFarlane. Stentor sulks. He was not well ridden. Watch him. The track was too hard for Charles A and Mahogany. It was a three horse race. The three were the best of the field, outside of Charming, who hung at the end as if her legs were hurting her.

Scratched—Fannie S, 105; Anna Mayes, 105; Draught, 107; Foremost, 107.

Time, 12½, 24½, 36½, 42½.

Winner—Br. f, by Hindoo—Calphurnia. Start good. Won in a gallop. There was not much doing behind. Humidity is Dungarven's full sister and outclassed her field. She ran as if she was an extra good filly. Fan is a fair filly, too. Watch her. Amoltepec ran a good race and favors soft going. So does Buck. Do not neglect Wrinkles. Toluca ran green and is hardly bridelwise.

Scratched—E. Come, 115; Foxey, 105.

Overweights—La Condisa, 4 pounds.

Time, 24½, 49½, 1:02, 1:14½.

Winner—Ch. c, by Midlothian—Rosette. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Midian was far the best. He cannot do his best except on a fast track, is fit and a good colt. Yule had all the bad luck of riding and interference. She was shut off at start and on the first turn. The filly is good. Woodford can be tabbed as a dasher. She is fit, but was used too much and went to pieces when the final drive turned up. Socialist ran his race. York might as well have been left. Ann was outclassed but is ready and can be tabbed for early action in duller company.

Scratched—Attainment, 100; Chihuahua, 102; Hurly Burly, 105.

Time, 25, 50½, 1:03, 1:15½, 1:41½, 1:48.

Winner—B. m, 5, by Deceiver—Lucy Lisle. Start good. Four horses were driving hard at the finish. Serena was best and is in good condition. She favors fast going. Roche is at razor edge. His favorite footing is soft. The Ball ran over the mark. He likes a route. Watch him. Argentina is good. She was short and overweighted to-day. Palomacita had too much of a burden. Mamie G will win soon. She was short and a bit outclassed.

Scratched—El Moro, 82; Imperious, 86; Rey del Tierra, 91; Nervoso, 106.

Overweights—Highland Ball, 3½ pounds.

Winner—B. g, 5, by Exile—Bracken.
Start good. Won easily; second driving. Refugee was best. His race was far above the mark, yet he seemed to outclass his field. He is best in mud, fit and had a clear course. Watch Star. He's better than classed. Badly ridden, he closed like a lion. Midas was short and is merely a sprinter. Richard had a lot of speed. But he has notions too. He talked to himself today. Satyr will do best over a distance and is best in mud. He closed stoutly at the end. Murphy was used like a rubber band and was shut off in a keen way during the use. He was eased up at the end. Fonso was even worse used, because she was cut off in moving up on the stretch turn. Plumeria is a sprinter and was raced into the ground.

Winner—B. c. by Joe Norwood—Sound.
Start good. Won after a hard drive by ten horses. It was a sparkling finish. After throwing out Midrica's race the second best won. Burnham was prettily ridden and had good luck. Ravelette was used too much, though she is a sprinter and her use was in the line of her action. She is good and inclines toward soft going. Flandes ran the best race. It was full of humor. He was shut off wherever there was a chance. He was racing like a real good colt at the end. Little T G was short. He is a sprinter, too. Watch him. Kylo met with a lot of early obstruction and closed stoutly. Watch him. Throw out Midrica's race. Idomeneus, Scintillate, Finnegan and Kummel all showed speed.
Scratched—Entrata, 100; Morana, 100; Royal Prize, 107.
